Concert of Irish Music and Song at St. Canice's Church Thurs August 22nd with Airneán and Fir an Chladaigh

"Airneán and Fir an Chladaigh, two of Ireland's newest and most exciting all-male vocal ensembles, will be hosting a concert in St Canice's on Thursday, August 22nd at 7pm. Airneán was set up by Joe Leydon and Jack Cunnane and is an all-male choir that is focused on the preservation of Irish traditional music and folk songs. You can expect to hear well-known songs re-imagined on the night, most of which are arranged by members of the group. Songs include Raglan Road, Farewell To Carlingford, Isle of Hope, Isle of Tears, and many more. You'll also hear the world premiere of one or two!

Fir an Chladaigh are an all-male group from Co.Galway who have previously toured America covering Irish favourites including many of the above listed songs. They are under the direction of Stephen Carroll, who is also the director of Claddagh Choral, who have also recently returned from a tour of Japan. Tickets cost €15 and will be available on the door or can also be bought online. Doors open at 6:30pm.Join us for an unforgettable celebration of Irish music and song in the beautiful surroundings of St Canice's on August 22nd!"

Catholic Marriage Encounter in Ireland

Friday 8th – 10th November 2024 - Focolare Centre, Prosperous, Co. Kildare.

The Catholic Marriage Enrichment program has been transforming marriages in Ireland for over 50 years and in 94 countries around the world.

The programme involves a Weekend experience that transforms the way spouses communicate to deepen their love for each other.

The Weekend experience allows one to develop a higher and broader understanding of what it means to be married. Sacramentally married couples are most welcome. While faith is a powerful part of this process, the focus of the Marriage Encounter experience is on the ups and downs of married life.

County Kilkenny Mass Paths and Holy Wells Survey – We need your help
Kilkenny Co. Council in partnership with Shanarc Archaeology and Wicklow Willow are conducting a survey of holy wells and mass paths in County Kilkenny. Holy wells have been visited for centuries around the county to provide cures, comfort and community. This survey seeks to record what remains in the landscape and in memory so that future generations will understand their importance in our spiritual, social and cultural heritage. Mass paths are an important and under-recorded part of our cultural heritage. They serve as reminders of the challenges faced by Catholics during the penal times, and also reminders of a later era when they were used by people in rural areas as pedestrian routes to mass, to visit neighbours and for going to school. If they are not recorded in the near future, their presence and value will have faded from the public memory. Much of the knowledge of holy wells and mass paths rests in community memory around the county and Kilkenny Co. Council need your help to record this knowledge before it is too late. We also hope to hold workshops around the county over the coming months to hear your stories. To get involved in the project or to share information about your local holy well or mass path, please contact the Heritage Office at Kilkenny County Council at heritage@kilkennycoco.ie or 056 779 4923
