Missionaries are Special People.

Recently we went to Kiltegan for the funeral of Fr. Ned Grace, a native of Tullaroan and former missionary in Nigeria. It was an uplifting experience to celebrate this generous missionary's life in the company of many of Fr. Ned's colleagues now living there in retirement. Looking around I was in awe of these men who have spent years on the missions in Nigeria and Kenya, and others who have worked in South American Continent –in Brazil. When we came to the cemetery for the burial and saw the graves of all these missionaries who are resting there, I thought what generosity and courage these people have shown. This weekend we celebrate the Missions. May I encourage you to please help the continuation of the great work of spreading the Gospel and to pray for the growth and success of the Missions

- Fr. Jim

“Let is not forget that every Christian is called to take part in this universal mission by offering his or her own witness to the Gospel in every context, so that the whole Church can continually go forth with her Lord and Master to the crossroads of today's world.”
