Dicksboro Notes

Many many congrats to the Dicksboro U14 boys on winning the Féile na Gael Div 1 Cup and the U14 girls on winning the Féile Camogie Div 2 Cup last Sunday evening in Nowlan Park. In truth it was the icing on the cake on a brilliant weekend Féile spectacle in Palmerstown. Thanks to all who in anyway helped to make it a weekend to remember; those who stewarded, parked cards, catered for the 1,000's of visitors from all over Ireland, the juvenile umpires, referees, Mi-Wadi servers, go - fers etc. If Carlsberg did Féiles... Dicksboro GAA & Camogie club members & people of St. Canices ye did us all proud. Thanks to Fr Jim for an `entertaining` Feile Mass last Sunday - the prayers worked !

As you read this, the U14 boys are taking part in the Féile Peil na nOg Gaelic Football tournament, with the boys being hosted by the Doohamlet O Neills GAA Club in Co. Monaghan - hopefully we are still in contention today (Sunday) - safe trip to all concerned... Hectic times - what will we do next weekend ?rest !

Summer Timewhen the living is easy!! It is winding down time for the Teachers and Pupils at St. Canice's School with the holidays beginning on next Friday, 30th. June at noon. We wish all the scholars and teachers and parents' happy holidays. Keep well and be safe, relax and enjoy yourselves. It has been a busy year in Parish and School with many joyful events and occasions, and there have been our times of sorrow too. Thank you to all who have cooperated so magnificently in the school and parish programs – the Confirmation and First Communion groups. We will not be holding any Parish meetings in July and August, and there will not be a weekly newsletter until September. Deaths and Anniversary notices will appear on the Parish Missalettes.
