Dicksboro

The County Final on Sunday between Dicksboro and James Stephens is a local derby and a wonderful occasion for the members of both clubs and all lovers of our great game of hurling. On Thursday evening at the Boro Clubhouse there was a colourful gathering of the youths decking themselves in their colours and later on of the older stock reminiscing and recalling great exploits of the past. Eventually through the musical contributions of the Wayward Dicksboro Ramblers, Patsy Dempsey, Mike Hennessy and Co a sing song came to life which gladdened our hearts! The inimitable Sean Keane paid tribute to Kieran Crotty and P J Garvan and presented them with hurleys signed by Cillian Buckley. We wish our players success on Sunday and look forward to an entertaining game of hurling. It will be an exciting start to the Wintertime and the long evenings. Best wishes to Dicksboro and hopefully the celebrations will go on into the wee hours!!

Mid Term Break - as the schools are closed for the midterm break the Parish Centre will be closed next week and the Volunteers will have a well deserved rest. Thank you for all your help and encouraging support.
