The Priests' Retreat

The retreat at the St John of God Sisters' Retreat House at Ballyvaloo, near Curracloe in Co. Wexford was a wonderful experience. The priests and Bishop spent five days in prayer and reflection in a beautiful location near the sea with a great long beach for walking and appreciating the beauty of God's Creation. The retreat Master Fr. Gerard McCarthy is a Divine Word Missionary and he was excellent in his enthusiastic conferences helping us to appreciate the action of God in our lives and reminding us to spend time praying on the Word of God, and to keep on encouraging each other. There was a wonderful atmosphere among all the priests and the accommodation and facilities were superb. We had lovely meals and the Wexford potatoes went down a treat. Our sincere thanks to those who led the Communion Services each morning while we were away on retreat, Sisters Concepta and Teresa, and Michael and Sony. It is a great preparation for the times when the priests may not be available every day in the future.
