Holy Communion

We are delighted to welcome the boys and girls of Second Class, who are celebrating First Holy Communion in our Parish this weekend and next. Fr. Peter and the Parents Committee of the Do This In Memory Program have been working hard all year together with the teachers in Second Class. Thank you for your commitment and hard work. The parents have been encouraging the children in their preparation too. We are most grateful to you all. The girls and boys are celebrating the reception of the Holy Bread of Life in the Eucharist. May this important celebration be the beginning of your many celebrations of the Eucharist in your lives. May you come to know the Lord Jesus as your friend and companion. May he give you joy and peace as his followers. Have a lovely celebration with your families. – Fr. Jim
