November Remember

We remember with hope in our hearts all our loved ones who have died. May they share Christ's victory and enjoy the vision of God for ever. Bring the new life given to them in Baptism to the fullness of eternal joy. Enjoying the vision of God's glory for ever and ever and attaining the fullness of eternal joy is what we are praying for as we remember our deceased loved ones at this time.

(Fr. Martin Hogan)

During the month of November we visit the graves of our deceased loved ones. There is a wonderful tradition in France where people return to their home towns and villages to adorn their graves with flowers. Chrysanthemums are on sale everywhere and the cemeteries look splendid with the arrays of colourful flowers. Let us come to visit our loved ones' graves in a spirit of faith and hope that just as God had brought Jesus through death into a new and more powerful life over which death has no power, so may we share in our prayer.

‘O you are not lying in the wet clay,

for it is a harvest evening now

and we are piling up the ricks against the moonlight

And you smile up at us - eternally.’

(In Memory of my Mother – Patrick Kavanagh) – Fr. Jim
