Our Congratulations

Congratulations to Fr. Dan Carroll of St. John's Parish on his entry into the ranks of the Papal Household and being named Monsignor. Our heartiest good wishes to Msgr. Dan and we all know he will wear his new insignia well and will continue to serve with humility and a smile.

Our Sympathies

Kathleen Dunphy of Connolly Street was laid to rest on Tuesday. Kathleen was born in 1938 and was raised and adopted by her Uncle and Aunt, Richard and Molly. She became Sacristan here in St. Canice's at the age of 20 in succession to Molly and served for 50 years until her retirement. In 2008 Kathleen received the Bene Merenti medal from Pope Benedict XVI at a special ceremony at St. Canice's Well with Bishop S. Freeman.

Faithfully down the years she rang the bell at noon and six – the Angelus. She has looked after countless clergy in her time.

Our sympathies to her family, Billy, Trish, Therese, Jim, Richard, Kathleen. John and the extended family.

May she rest in peace. – Fr. Jim
